

Try out Improv Theatre!

PLAYBACK THEATRE WORKSHOP

Hosted by writer & director Cymbeline Buhler with actor Sarah Dillane.

1.00-4.00pm Saturday 18 June

Blue Mountains Cultural Centre, Katoomba

1.00-4.00pm Saturday 25 June

Blue Mountains Theatre, Springwood

Playback Theatre is a highly entertaining form of improvisational theatre that uses the magic of telling and listening to everyday stories from real life. These fun and unique workshops are for anyone with an interest in drama or performance, as well as anyone who likes to just be creative or try new things!

Cymbeline and Sarah are very talented and experienced facilitators who will introduce you to some of the main techniques used in Playback Theatre including:

dramatic tension theatre craft use of music drama, voice & movement (instruments welcome!)
 narrative structure + more

Workshops are for young people aged 12-17 and are free. No experience needed. Just come along and have fun. There'll be food & drinks too. Places are limited. Book now!

BOOK YOUR SPOT AT planetyouthbm.eventbrite.com.au

PARTNER Blue Mountains

Blue Mountains
planetyouth bm.net.au
Together We Can Help Our Young People Live Their Best Lives

Planet Youth is a global and local community based alcohol and drug prevention initiative funded in Australia by the Alcohol and Drug Foundation, implemented by the Local Drug Action Team in partnership with Blue Mountains City Council and Mountains Youth Services Team (MYST) and supported by local schools, community members and local community services.

